Hello my Brothers and Sisters,

The Missing Ingredient

One of my hobbies is cooking and the larger the group, the better. As an amateur chief, I enjoy experimenting with new and unusual dishes and trying different ingredients. If everyone likes what I prepare, I acknowledge that it’s just a stroke of genius. If it’s really bad, I blame interruptions, mindless chatter, and women in my kitchen or any other excuse that comes to mind at the time – anything except my own incompetence. Last week I decided to create loaves of bread for a bake sale at church. No box mixes for me, I started out with fresh cranberries and rolling out my own dough. Soon, the dough had risen in the pan and my masterpiece was in the oven. I sat down to enjoy a cup of coffee while the oven did its magic. At exactly the right time, I carefully placed the golden brown loaves on the counter to cool. Of course I made an extra loaf, which I sliced for a taste test. It was a disaster. The bread was dry and hard and tasted horrible – I had forgotten to add cooking oil. All that time and energy and it was unusable all because of one little ingredient.

How many times have I allowed one missing ingredient to waste my time and spoil my project: no oil for my fishing boat motor, no pencil to keep score at the golf course, no street address for my GPS and then no map, no battery for the microphone. Usually the missing ingredient is something seemingly unimportant. Of course you always remember the most important things. It’s the seemingly unimportant things that you don’t even think about that you forget to include.

For the last two and a half years it has been my joy and privilege to travel around the United States and Canada representing our great Order. I have been privileged to visit Grand Lodges, Rebekah Assemblies, Grand Encampments, and Department Councils. It has also been my privilege to visit local lodges, encampments and cantons. In the process, I have met some really wonderful people that I am proud to call brothers and sisters. They are doing an excellent job with the ritual work, making a difference in their communities and growing. They make you proud to be a member of this great Order. Then, occasionally I visit where little good seems to be happening. The meetings are filled with arguing and dissertation and everyone seems to be looking out just for themselves. The attitude seems to be, “It’s all about me.” And, of course, they are declining in membership. Something seems to be missing.

In the story of the Good Samaritan, only one man in three made a difference. That was because he alone had compassion. Compassion is the foundation for Friendship, Love and Truth. Everything good in our Order is a result of compassion. When we are ready to “do unto others as we would have them do unto us,” we are beginning to live a life of compassion. When we want what’s best for Odd Fellowship more than what we want for ourselves, we are ready to live by the principles of our Order. Is it the missing ingredient in your lodge?

Let’s “Make a Difference”, “Turn on the Lights”, “Work Today for Building Tomorrow”, and “Change the World, One person at a Time.” It all begins with compassion.

In F., L. & T.,

Robert “Bob” Smith

CHANGE THE WORLD — One Person at a Time.

“WE SEEK TO IMPROVE AND ELEVATE THE CHARACTER OF MAN”
Greetings Sisters and Brothers,

As I reflect over this past weekend – as we gathered in Arlington, VA for the Pilgrimage to The Tomb of Unknown Soldier – I find myself reflecting upon this service and tribute in memory of those who have given their lives to protect the “our way of life” which in itself preserves the principles of Odd Fellowship – Friendship, Love & Truth – the free world way.

We need to preserve the past of Odd Fellowship and more importantly ensure the future of Odd Fellowship each and every day, practicing friendship, love and truth; leaving behind jealousy, envy and distrust.

The emblems devoted to the Rebekah Degree, each one reminding us who we are - providing a blue print upon which we can build our lives. The beehive teaches us the benefit of joint efforts in the performance of the countless duties of life; the moon and seven stars presenting to us the importance of organized deeds – consistency and accuracy in all our duties as well as a reflecting light from the source of all light casting their rich rays through lifeless hours of darkness inspiring valor and hope; the dove representative of peace; and the lily prompting us to direct our thoughts and actions as though all were to read the one and see the other – our character untainted and flawless.

It was a pleasure to see my many friends attending the Pilgrimage to The Tomb of Unknown Soldier and I trust all returned home with renewed enthusiasm working towards ‘Preserving the Past and Ensuring the Future of Odd Fellowship’ in your communities and in your lives.

In Friendship, Love and Truth – Rebekah hugs to all,

Dorothy M. Laycock

Preserving the Past – Ensuring the Future.

Make a Difference; Share a Smile!
Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers, and Sisters,

As of this reading you know that the pilgrimage to Arlington National Cemetery is over. I hope that everyone had a memorable time. Now it is time to get back to work and build this Order to its greatness once again. It was real good to see old friends again and to make new acquaintances. I look forward to seeing many of you at the ceremony in Ottawa, ON the first weekend in June.

My visits to the jurisdictions have gone very well, but most of them are down in numbers. But that is not hard to understand, as we have not walked in F., L., T. for some time now; it is time to get back to basics and the ritual.

I encourage you to arrange with your local communities to parade in the up-coming Memorial Day parades, the Canada Day festivities and 4th of July parades, or such other occasions that will make the Order visible in your community. “Walk with honor and wear your uniform with pride.”

I wish the very best to Lady Debra LaVergne President I.A.L.A.P.M., Sister Dorothy M. Laycock President I.A.R.A., and to the Honorable Robert W. ‘Bob’ Smith Sovereign Grand Master. Everyone stay in good health and safe, God Bless each of you.

“Working Today for Building Tomorrow.

Chivalrously,

General K. D. Toney

May 2014

Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers, and Sisters,

We had nearly perfect weather at the annual Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington National Cemetery. Oh, our flag and banner bearers would have liked a little less wind making their flags and banners hard to handle, but the breeze kept the temperature comfortable under mostly sunny skies.

Now is time to look forward to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, IARA, GMC and IALAPM session in Victoria, British Columbia. It is important for jurisdictions to have a representative come to the International session in August. These international bodies enact laws and pass resolutions that affect the workings of our departments and local auxiliaries. Your representative needs to be there to discuss and vote, and then take back to your Department Association the information learned at the session.

The GMC and IALAPM will consider the proposals and recommendations from our GMC/IALAPM study committee. The committee reported to our executive committees during the Pilgrimage weekend.

Communication is vital to our survival. Department Association Secretaries do a wonderful job, but they should not be the only communication link between the IALAPM and the jurisdiction. We need information flowing to and from the jurisdictions through as many channels as possible. Please send a Representative to Victoria!

Change the World by encouraging our associated Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges to ‘Turn on the Lights and Open the Doors’ while our members ‘Be Visible and Be Proud!’

Chivalrously,

Lady Debra LaVergne

CEREMONY FOR MEMORIAL DAY
SERVICES FOR DECEASED
MEMBERS OF THE I.O.O.F.

At the appointed time the members will assemble in their Lodge-room.

VOLUNTARY BY THE CHOIR.

Hymn.
AIR—“America.”

We sing our honored dead,
And on their tranquil bed
Proud tribute fling;
Here let our song arise,
Like incense to the skies,
A living sacrifice
To them we sing.
No voice of woe shall wheathe
Amidst the strains we breathe,
With grateful breast;
Thiers was a work well done,
Thiers was a race well run,
Thiers was a victory won
Of peace and rest.

CHAPLAIN: Our Heavenly Lord! As we thus gather may may we be imbued with the joyful spirit of thankfulness for Thy many mercies, as well as with solemnity for this hour’s devotions.

We remember Thy goodness to us all the days of our life. Give us this day an ear for the orphan’s cry, and the widow’s woe. Help us so to live that we may be worthy followers of those who have passed on before. May we learn our duty to the living as well as proper reverence for the dead.

Let Thine eye be open to all our needs, and Thine ear quick to attend our every cry until we follow our Brethren to that land where all tears are wiped away. We ask in His Name. AMEN.

NOBLE GRAND: In accordance with the Proclamation of the Grand Master of this Jurisdiction, (or Sovereign Grand Master, as the case may be) we have assembled to -day as members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows to pay loving tributes of respect to the memory of our deceased. Brothers and sisters, who, one year ago, were with us, but now have passed beyond the veil.

An enlightened and civilized nation reveres the memory of its dead, and it is fit and proper for all people sometimes to lay aside the cares of life, and wend their way to the silent cities of the dead, to drop the loving tear and strew flowers of spring upon their graves. And so,

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

Membership remains our priority need in this ancient and venerable Order, and the key to this need simply is YOU!

There is no magic formula, except, ask everyone you know, and you will get someone to petition your lodge.

Every Lodge in the Order has built in reserve of potential members, by personally contacting those members you have dropped for non-payment in the last five years. In contacting them, ask them, what could we as a Lodge do to entice you into reinstating as a member. Sometimes, we who are active get oblivious to the cause of others not attending and stopping to pay their dues. Most often, we notify them by mail that we are dropping them from membership for NPD, and that is the last of it. If you would involve the person who brought their petition in, if still living, and get that friend of theirs to help them celebrate what is right in our Lodges, and help make needed changes to encourage others to become members, we just might see a change in the numbers we must report annually to The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

If your lodge has not tried, a Saturday morning breakfast, cooked and served by the members of the Lodge, open to Lodge members and prospective members, share the Members Handbook with them, and have a good fellowship, and leave a good taste in their mouths, you might be surprised what the results would be.

Do something to make your Lodge meetings fun and interesting to members, and a time that new members might enjoy. Invite a local person to come and speak; some good topics that are meaningful to us all might be: an Attorney, speaking about the need for everyone to have Will; a local Funeral Director speaking about what to do if someone dies in your home, there are different regulations from city to city, county to county and state to state; local firefighter speaking about the need for a workable fire extinguisher, working smoke/fire alarms and a plan of escape if you should have a fire; local weather forecaster, talking about what to do if severe weather threatens. These would not be selling opportunities, but public interest forums, with questions and answers. All of these are important to Senior Citizens, and most Lodges have their share of us. Refreshments could be served after. Doing anything positively is better than doing everything negatively.

Fraternally yours,

Charles E. Worrell Sr.
Membership Chairman

we, as members of this great fraternal Order, to-day meet, that our dead may not be forgotten, but that their virtues may be made known and their memory kept green.

Since our last Memorial Day, many of our Brothers and Sisters have departed; their voices are hushed—their chairs are vacant, their last battle has been fought, their warfare has ended, and peacefully they have sunk to rest. I thus call upon you, my Brethren, that we may fittingly spend this hour in commemorating their good deeds and be fitted, when we go hence, to emulate their virtues and be ourselves prepared for the great change that awaits us all.

[The Secretary will now read the names of the deceased, with suitable biographical sketches.]

Dirge. – or other song optional..

[Here will follow eulogies, if there be any present to deliver them; but if not, the Chaplain shall read or declaim the following:]

CHAPLAIN: My Brethren: Most solemn thoughts have pervaded our every mind, as the Secretary read the list of our members who, one short year ago, aided us in these sweetly sad exercises. Some of them were then in the full glow of health, and were ambitious of further success and usefulness in this world—but they were cut down.

Long may they live in our memory and their bright examples be unto us beacon lights to guide us in the work of Odd Fellowship. In the sharp conflicts of opinion, in the heat of debate, may their hallowed memories hush every unkind word and discordant thought and span the storm of controversy with the rainbow promise of peace and love. Sitting at the feet of their shadows, let us treasure the legacy they have bequeathed as a sacred trust, and transmit it to those who shall follow us, beautified, adorned, and enriched by their added sacrifice.

Death is the one event that comes to every human being. From real or imaginary evils, we may, in the Providence of God, escape; in this conflict, however, there is no retreat; there is no departure from this world of sin sorrow, and suffering, to the higher and diviner life, but through the gates of death. Neither tears nor anguish, nor breaking heart-strings can avail anything when the fatal summons comes; they are utterly powerless to ward off the grim messenger. All we can do is to bow before the great affliction and reverently say: “The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.”

The All-Wise Ruler of the Universe has given unto us to know good and evil, and right from wrong, so that we are thus forewarned and forearmed against the possible moral dangers that can accrue to weak humanity, and prepare against that day of reckoning which surely awaits all mankind. Our life here should be made a time of careful and steady preparation—as by our deeds we shall be justified or condemned in that great day.

Friendship fostered in our hearts becomes transformed into the golden chain of Love, which binds us firmly together upon the immovable rock of Truth, the foundation not only of our glorious Order, but of all things that are good and abiding.

Duty, properly performed, becomes a pleasure to the doer, as well as of lasting benefit to the one aided. Our days are numbered and our end we know not.

“That solemn day will surely come,
The appointed hour make haste;”
and we must all go to face the record of our deeds.

May we, therefore, so live with the approval of our conscience and our God, that, whenever we are called, we may enter joyfully the Grand Lodge above.

Hymn.
AIR—“Boylston.”

“It is not death to die,
To leave this weary road;
And with the Brotherhood on high.
To be at home with God.

“It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed with tears,
And wake in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

“It is not death to hear
The stroke that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.”

CHAPLAIN: Our Father, so guide us in accordance with these godly admonitions, that we may be taught so to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

May we early learn to look only to Thee, the Author of everything good and, perfect, and with Thine approval, so to live while here, that in the world to come we may have life everlasting.

Pass by our imperfections, forgive our misdoings, cheer us by Thy presence when we come to enter the Valley of the Shadows, and bring us to Thyself in Heaven for His Name’s sake. AMEN.

Greetings to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs,

    The bus routes have been plotted, hotels booked, meals planned and delegates are ready to begin the journey of their life next month on the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth 2014 tour.

    To those jurisdictions that have sponsored a delegate, volunteered to serve a meal or pay for lodging, THANK YOU. Your commitment to this program of Independent Order of Odd Fellows proves our Order is the best fraternal organization in the world. Without you, the cost of the tour would be out of sight and unattainable for many.

    Adult tour leaders who have volunteered, and in some cases take time off work, to spend 2 weeks with complete strangers, and teen agers to boot, are to be thanked for their commitment to the program. The New York staff will spend 2 weeks making sure all aspects of the New York experience will be unforgettable to all who come and deserve a big thank you also. Coordinating bus routes in the city is no easy task, and feeding 150 delegates at one time is a challenge, but one the New York staff handles with ease.

    Did your lodge, encampment, district, or jurisdiction, send a delegate this year. Did you cut back due to the cost? Now is the time to plan for the 2015 tour. Ask another lodge to jointly sponsor a delegate or provide funds for a meal or hotel. Any donation, no matter how small or large, makes a difference to the program and is appreciated.

    There have been several requests these past few months from former delegates asking about an alumni association for the program. Work on obtaining names of delegates and their years of participation is in processing. A Facebook page has been set up and will be launched soon. If you have articles, pictures, etc. that can be placed on the Facebook page, email to me and I will place those that are appropriate on the page.

    The 65th Year of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Tour is upon us, thank you for your continued support.

                         Sincerely and Fraternally,
                         Janet L. Bruce, Executive Director
