guard of the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. We put the flower into the young man’s hand, knowing that we are not honoring an unknown soldier, but we honor an ideal, the ideal that he gave the ultimate sacrifice in order that we, you and I, have this freedom today.

It is my hope that as we, the Brothers and Sisters of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, remember not only what we do today, but Why?

Freedom is not Free. Help us to be ready to pay the price for Freedom, in what we do, in what we say and how we treat others.

I do thank you for your attendance today and invite everyone to the other stage for our next step in saying thank you.

Fraternally yours,

Jimmy C. Humphrey

Office of the Sovereign Grand Master
Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Brothers and Sisters,

Greetings all,

I wish that all of you could have joined us in Washington, DC this past weekend for the ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. I am going to share my remarks and hope that we can apply this to our Order, our Lodge, our Country.

Greetings, My Brothers and Sisters, Patriarchs, Matriarchs, Chevaliers, Ladies, our friends, guests and those who have joined us.

We are the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, a Fraternal Society that has the privilege of coming here to Arlington to pause, to say thank you to those who surround us in this special setting. We say thank you to these brave men and women who have given their all so that we can do this. Come together, tip our hat, and enjoy the Freedom that we all have.

Freedom is not Free, it is bought with a very dear price. Just think for a moment, all of these markers that dot this lovely hillside, so many young men, women, 17, 18, 19, 20 years old, an entire life time in just the blink of an eye. They gave their all so that we can be here today, ‘to say thank you’ for your part in our freedom.

Freedom is not Free, it must be protected. We are not here today to just deliver some flowers, to feel good for ourselves, to just say thank you. No, we need to Pause, to consider who we are in this great country of ours, consider what we can do in order to remain the Free Nation that we are. Am I asking for a call to Arms today? Of a sort. Not the bang bang, shoot shoot type, but a call to look at ourselves.

What are we doing to keep this freedom train moving forward?
What are we saying or doing that suppresses another individuals rights to express themselves even if we don’t agree?
We have the freedom of free press, the freedom to criticize our government, to think our own thoughts about right/wrong/moral issues. But, we do not have the freedom or the right or the privilege to stomp upon another individuals same right.

Let’s take a moment to look about this setting that we find ourselves in. We can gather together, sing songs of praise or protest. We have that right, that Freedom. We did have to put in some applications to gather here today, but that is just for organization not subjection. There are some, both within and without the Order who think that this is frivolous, a waste of time and money. But I think not. If we are going to enjoy the fruits of these young peoples’ sacrifice, this freedom that we have, then we need to take this moment as an obligation to say thank you, and to realize that my freedom of expression, my spot in this land of ours is not any more important than the same spot or spots of yours. We have to share responsibility not only with one another but for one another.

These dear hearts that rest here upon this peaceful hillside gave their all so that I can stand here, very well aware that it was their sacrifice that allows me to have this freedom. Not only me, but for you to share in this adventure in life that we have. Is it asking too much of me to respect your rights as a fellow member of humanity, of society. Is it asking too much of you, to accept me as a fellow traveler on this journey that we both are on. I think not. We may not all have the same position or seat on the train, but the train still needs to be headed in the same direction. I do not have a higher claim to my rights and Freedoms than you do. So it is morally right that we share, that we give when necessary in order to accomplish the total goal. Which is to continue this Freedom we have.

We will move from this location in a few minutes, for the service of placing a flower on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. We will not place the flower our self but hand it to a very dedicated individual who has gone through a very difficult process just to be here, be on

"WE SEEK TO IMPROVE AND ELEVATE THE CHARACTER OF MAN"
Greetings Sisters and Brothers all,

Finally spring has arrived here in Texas. I hope it has arrived at your house also.

I hope you will be able to join the Executives of all Branches of our Order attending the Annual Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington, VA the weekend of May 3rd and in Ottawa, Ontario the weekend of June 7th. The committees of both of these events should be given a Huge thank you for all the hard work they do to ensure we all have the opportunity to express our gratitude to the members of our armed forces for giving the ultimate sacrifice that we may live in freedom.

As our Sovereign Grand Master has declared April as Odd Fellow Anniversary month, I hope you and your lodge celebrated the 196th birthday of our Order.

April 18th was MAKE DIFFERENCE DAY. I hope you were able to get your lodge out and MAKE A DIFFERENCE in your community or in someone’s life. We need to get out and let everyone know who we are and what we do and what we stand for.

I have had the pleasure of visiting the sessions of Texas, Rhode Island, Ohio, and Ontario. As usual the the Odd Fellows and Rebekah’s were wonderful and I had such a great time. It is so wonderful seeing the different ways our lodges and jurisdictions work. Everyone does things a bit differently but always get to the same end. I hope by my visiting your jurisdictions I have been able to answer questions or just been an inspiration to you. Our officers’ job in visiting you is to keep you up on what is going on at the international level. I look forward to meeting new friends and seeing friends in my future travels.

Remember the snowflake is one of Gods most fragile creations but just look what they can do when they stick together. Big Congratulations to Riverside Rebekah Lodge No. 151 in Ontario on their 100th anniversary. I hope I will hear from many more of you on things like this. Please let me know of such anniversaries or special birthdays.

A member of my own lodge just celebrated her 104th birthday. She still attends lodge and is still a very sharp Rebekah.

I hope you are all working one getting new members. Do you have an application with you at all times? Do you have a 30 second commercial about us so when someone asks us who we are and what we do you can let them know. New members are out there; sometimes all you have to do is ask!!

Fraternally,

Sharon Burt, President

May 2015

Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers, and Sisters,

Hello Brothers and Sisters I hope everyone is doing well and the weather has started to warm up in your department. I have started my visitations; Sharon and I have visited the jurisdictions of Oklahoma, Mid Atlantic Region, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, and the Tomb in Washington, DC. We had a great time in meeting some new friends and visiting old friends at the different places we have visited. And we are looking forward to all the others we are going to visit.

Brothers and Sister we need to work hard on our membership. Each and everyone needs to bring in one new member in to your lodge and get them to go on and join the Encampment and Canton or Auxiliaries. This could change everything for the Order. My moto is: United we can carry Odd Fellowship into the Future. I truly believe this and if we work together we can build this Order back. I would like for everyone to ask themselves what they could do to help build the Order to what it used to be and go out and do it.

Brothers and Sisters I don’t like to talk about this but it needs to be addressed. In some of the lodges there has been disagreement between the members in the lodges, we have forgotten ‘friendship, love and truth’ that we are supposed to show to our fellow Brothers and Sisters. It is all right to have disagreements in the lodge but when we leave the lodge we have forgotten that we are all Brothers and Sisters. We should try and work out the problems that they have and not spread it.

May 2015

Dear Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers and Sisters,

May is our time to make our pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknown and the Canadian War Memorial in June. It is a great privilege to place a wreath honoring those brave men and women who gave their all for us.

I ran across this article in one of our 1983 WV Newsletters written by a good friend:

Dear They:

I was in a meeting you attended last week, and I have several complaints. Half of the members I saw were shivering because they were cold, and the other half were fanning like they were too warm. I wish you “they’s” would get the temperatures set right.

I also hear that you “they’s” are spending a lot of money helping other people. I believe you call it ‘Work of the Order”. If you “They’s” would stop that and spend that money selfishly on all us “Us’s”, maybe the Dues would be lower. I don’t want to complain, but I can’t understand why “They” keep after “Us” to increase our giving. I have been faithfully giving my $8.00 a year since 1965, and feel that with better though all of the Jurisdictions; it should stay in that lodge. I truly believe that what happens in the lodge should stay in the lodge. If it is carried out of the lodge it does the Order no good and gives us a bad name. Ten good deeds will soon be forgotten but one bad deed will not, enough about that.

Our Study Committee is still working very hard on trying to have something for me in Washington that we all can go along with. I have a committee working on a Youth Cadet Corps for the Canton which will be made up of 12 to 18 year old boys and girls. I was looking forward to having one of the groups to come to the G.M.C. to put on a drill for us but we don’t know if that is going to happen, it may be next year. The committee has worked very hard on this for me and has made a lot of progress. I want to thank all of my Officers that are serving this year, they have worked very hard. I also want to thank everyone that bought one of my pins as all of the money goes to the Wounded Warriors project and the Humane Society that takes dogs and trains them for the Wounded Warriors. I know that there is something about them on the internet. I have talked to our local chapter and all of the money will go to helping the Wounded Warriors at Fort Knox. I have raised so far around $2,400.00 and I still have some pins left so please buy them.

On another note Memorial Day is May 25th this year. Memorial Day is for remembering the people who died while serving in our Country’s Armed Forces. The holiday which is observed every year on the last Monday of May was formerly known as Decoration Day and originated after the American civil war to commemorate the Union and Confederate Soldiers who died in the war. By the 20th century Memorial Day had been extended to honor all Americans who died while in the military service. Memorial Day is not too be confused with Veterans Day; Memorial Day is a day of remembering the men and women who died while serving. Veterans Day celebrates the service of all U.S. Military Veterans. So please remember our Veterans on this day. Pray for them and their family for the sacrifice they have given for us in the service of their country. Most cemeteries have enough help putting out the flags but don’t have any help taking them down, so please volunteer and help in any way you can. By the time the paper comes out I would have been to the Tomb of the Unknown in Arlington National Cemetery. I have had the honor of taking in the wreath on three different times and being one of the heads of the Order it even makes it a greater honor.

Chivalrously

planning “They” would not need as large amount as “They” presented. I know “They” run things, spend all the money, and make all the decisions. Since I don’t attend meetings and am too busy to serve as an officer anymore, I don’t really know the new “They’s” as well as I used to know the old “They’s”. I suspect a “They” is a “They” none the less.

Keep up the good work though! The “They’s” who hold the offices and work on committees are doing their work well. I know the Order probably needs a few more “They’s”. I myself would consider becoming a “They”, but then I would have to give up being an “Us”.

God forbid the “Us’s” and the “They’s” should ever get together and discover that “They” and “Us” equal a good Order and that we all belong together, helping one another!

Looking forward to the rest of the year, and I wish for each wonderful Sessions.

Chivalrously,

lodge open. One lodge I visited, barely maintained a simple quorum and the most active member drove over 500 miles monthly just to keep his lodge functioning. This is truly unsustainable.

We need new members, but we won’t get new members by just putting a sign out that says “New Members Wanted” – even the Goodyear Blimp, or the nightly news will not bring them in unless we give a reason for joining. If your lodge needs new members, rather than considering your own point of view, think of prospective members and what he or she needs to make them happy. If there is no benefit cheap enough to give, then perhaps it’s time to post a “for sale” sign out front, because if a beneficial group ceases completely to offer benefits in what way does it remain beneficial? Conversely, if you take a look at the still successful beneficial groups in existence you will note that a benefit of some type is still being given. This is not greed rather it is what a famous author (Aldous Huxley) says makes us “human, all too human”. In order to grow, we need to see the world as a reflection of ourselves and ask ourselves what we may want if we were to consider joining once again.

In Friendship, Love and Truth,
Rick Boyles

After making several visits to local lodges in low membership jurisdictions and talking about the benefits of belonging to our Order, this seems to say a very lot of what I have been talking about. I think we as an organization need desperately to look at ourselves and assess what we are and what we want to become. The program ‘First Things First’ is a good tool to assess your lodge, jurisdiction and the Order in general.

Greetings our Brothers and Sisters,

I wish to share an article from PGM Boyles of California:

Will a Goodyear Blimp help Build our Order?

When we talk about advertising our Order we need to do more than look at the anticipated results: first we need to consider what exactly we are advertising. A Past Grand Master several years ago said to me that first we have to look at what we are inviting onlookers to see, more on that momentarily. There are several glaring issues that arise when you consider advertising. First of course, there is the price. Everyone has heard the outlandish prices asked during large television events, numbering in the millions of dollars, and most advertising is based upon repetition; making the common methodology of widespread advertising outside our financial capabilities. Secondly, our Order has declined to such a level that wide expanses of our country are not even touched by our members; our Sovereign Grand Master has noted that there are now many states in dire condition. This brings me back to what the Past Grand Master mentioned, put bluntly, that we would be inviting people to an area or areas not healthy within our Order. And then an item we rarely, if ever, discuss, is what exactly are we telling these prospective members? That we are about Friendship, Love and Truth? This is our creed and our words to live by, admirable, but certainly not exclusive to our Order. You don’t have to be a member of the Odd Fellows to know Friendship, Love and Truth. What we need to decide is what do we do with F., L., & T.? How do we demonstrate this to the world?

That brings us to the next question: who are we? What do we represent? What do we tell a visitor who wants to know about us? What do we do beyond holding a lodge meeting? Many of us appear to do nothing beyond this. That's okay for us, but what draws the new person in? Ask yourself what made you join? What differentiates us from the outside world? Also, why did our membership decline so severely? These questions must be answered truthfully and completely before we can even imagine widespread advertising.

In various conversations with members, it appears that what we had long ago and have since lost are benefits. Simply put, what is the benefit to being a member? While it may seem greedy to us to think that a person would not join out of an altruistic notion to do good, it rarely if ever happens. Whether we realize it or not, our basic needs must first be met. Almost all of us know our earlier credos – bury the dead, educate the orphan, and I would submit others as well, sustenance for the hungry, security for the insecure, friendship for the lonely. These were common needs for the early settlers, but somehow we have lost our way. Many lodges do nothing for their members, and perhaps not so surprisingly, their memberships are quickly becoming depleted. We have all heard the term maximum density, but I believe that a number of our lodges, and indeed some of our states, have sunk to minimum density – In other words the membership has diminished to such a level that basic traits of a lodge setting such as a dinner, a greeting, or something conducive to gathering new members has fallen to the wayside. Some lodges have gotten so small that the members they still have feel compelled to carry a heavy load just to keep their

26 - I.O.O.F. News — Vol. 18, Issue 3
May 2015

Greetings to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs,

The bus routes are being finalized, hotels booked, meals planned and the delegates are ready to begin a memorable journey in July on the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth 2015 tour.

To those jurisdictions that have sponsored a delegate, volunteered to serve a meal or pay for lodging, THANK YOU. Your commitment to this program of The Sovereign Grand Lodge proves our Order is the best fraternal organization in the world. Without you, the cost of the tour would be out of sight and unattainable for many.

Adult tour leaders who have volunteered, and in some cases take time off work, to spend 2 weeks with complete strangers, and teenagers to boot, are to be thanked for their commitment to this program. The New York staff will spend 2 weeks making sure all aspects of the New York experience will be unforgettable and deserve a big thank you also. Coordinating bus routes in the city is no easy task, and feeding 175 delegates at one time is a challenge, but one the New York staff handles with ease. And walking, walking, walking, all will walk many miles during the 2 weeks on the tour. Last year in New York alone, a staff member walked over 40 miles. Maybe this year a delegate will have one of those new electronic gadgets and keep track of the entire tour. How many miles do you think they will walk?

Did your lodge, encampment, district, or jurisdiction, send a delegate this year or did you have to cut back and not sponsor this year? Now is the time to plan for the 2016 tour. Ask another lodge or unit to jointly sponsor a delegate or provide funds for a meal or hotel. Any donation, no matter how small or large, makes a difference to the program and is greatly appreciated.

We are receiving requests from former delegates asking about an alumni association. Work on obtaining name of delegates and years of participation are being done. Were you a delegate, staff member, or know someone who was? Send that information to my office or send an email. If you have articles, pictures, etc. that may be used for promotion of the program, send those in also.

The 66th Year of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Tour is here, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely and Fraternally,
Janet L. Bruce, Executive Director
Odd Fellows Insurance Program

Endorsed by The Sovereign Grand Lodge, the Odd Fellows Insurance Program is designed specifically to meet your Lodge's unique insurance needs. We offer:

PROPERTY | GENERAL LIABILITY | LIQUOR LIABILITY | UMBRELLA
AUTO LIABILITY | SPECIAL EVENTS | WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Now we offer you a choice. And one could save you up to 40%.

Our new Classic Insurance Product was created to provide Lodges with the coverage they need, without the extras that can drive up the cost.

Or perhaps you'll decide our Premier Coverage, offering more comprehensive protection, is what your Lodge needs. The choice is yours.

Don't renew your Lodge's insurance without contacting us for a free quote!
