To All Units of Odd Fellowship:

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

By the time you receive this publication of the I.O.O.F. News we will have concluded the Ceremony of our Eighty-Fourth Annual Pilgrimage of the Tomb of the Unknowns. I want to express my appreciation to the Pilgrimage Committee for all their hard work. I sincerely want to “Thank” each Odd Fellow and Rebekah who attended and/or participated in this year’s ceremony. The laying of the wreaths at the Tomb of the Unknowns is an opportunity to express our appreciation and sympathy to those who gave their lives that we might celebrate freedom. If you have never had an opportunity to attend; consider putting the weekend on your calendar for 2018.

The month of May is the special time set aside to remember the Visual Research Foundation. Please remember this very worthwhile project of the Order with your Donations and support.

Also, let us not forget the SOS Children’s Village. It is one of our projects where we reach out to other parts of the world.

To those jurisdictions holding their sessions in the coming months, I wish for you a successful and productive session and I hope to see many of you at the sessions in St. Louis in August.

If you have not asked your friend, neighbor, church member or fellow employee to join with you in Odd Fellowship yet, WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR? Remember, “The Future of Odd Fellowship is in Our Hands”.

What you and I do with it today will determine where our great Order will be tomorrow. Carry an application with you and let us make a new beginning by asking someone to become a member of this Great Order. You will be ‘Insuring Our Order’s Future’.

Fraternally, in Friendship, Love and Truth,

/s/ W. Larry Ferguson
Sovereign Grand Master

“WE SEEK TO IMPROVE AND ELEVATE THE CHARACTER OF MAN”
Dear Sisters and Brothers of our Fraternal Order,

Spring has arrived in “sunny” California as we are enjoying 80 degree weather, although on my visit to Winnipeg, Manitoba I did enjoy seeing the all-day snow fall.

Jurisdictional visits have started up again and I am so proud of the proficient manner in which the annual sessions are being conducted.

I thank the jurisdictions for their hospitality and the hostesses that travel many miles to meet and greet me, with a smile, at the airports.

I enjoy the presence of the SGL representatives at these sessions as we work together in “UNITY”.

This weekend I will have the honor of participating in the solemn ceremonies at the ‘Tomb of the Unknown Soldier’ in Arlington and then in June the ‘Canadian War Memorial’ in Ottawa. Thank you to the committees for all the arrangements that are made for these outstanding ceremonies.

May is “Visual Research” month. Please review at your lodge meetings the benefits of this worthy project and how it may help members who may have serious eye problems. You can contact the Visual Research committee for more information.

Did you or your lodge participate in the ‘Make a Difference’ day? One small act of kindness can make a difference in someone’s life today. Send in the forms (in the IOOF News) so you or your lodge can be acknowledged for your efforts.

I am preparing for our upcoming Annual Sessions in St. Louis, MO on August 21 thru August 24. YES, it will be here before we know it!!! Remember it will be a four (4) day session!!!

I will always look forward to seeing each of you along the way.

With Fraternal Love – “Forget-Me-Not”

Joyce Link, President I.A.R.A.

“UNITY Through UNDERSTANDING” – a link to the future.
May 2017

Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers, and Sisters,

We are all aware that our Fraternity’s Degree Work is based on and builds on the symbols of Our Order. With this in mind, I designed my pin for this year in the hope that it would encompass some of the symbols and goals of all our branches for we must all work together, if we are to succeed.

The shield demonstrates the PM’s willingness to defend peace. The sword crossed by the shepherd’s crook, behind the shield, highlights our work to gather in the relief of distressed and defend their needs.

To the left of the shield: Friendship, Love and Truth; emphasizes Odd Fellowship. To the right of the shield: Faith, Hope, and Charity; embolden our Encampments.

The Lion of Strength and a Lamb of Peace are in the field of the shield and the banner that bridges their enclosure says in Latin “Justitia Universalis” or “Universal Justice for all”. Without the strength to defend our peace, we are vulnerable to the disarray of war.

The crown atop the shield denotes that all of these goals here symbolized are worthy of our most revered thoughts and reflect our endeavors always speak louder than our words as we progress toward our betterment of mankind.

If it is to be; it is up to us!

Chivalrously,

General Daniel E. Mathews

‘a peaceful ruler; serving as a soldier’

May 2017

Dear Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers and Sisters,

The Annual Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington, VA will be here the weekend of May 6th and 7th; and the Canadian War Memorial the weekend of June 3rd and 4th. It will truly be my privilege to represent the International Association Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militants as I participate in these ceremonies.

The Pilgrimage Committees of both events should be commended for the work they do on our behalf to ensure that we have an opportunity to express our gratitude to the service men and woman who have given that ultimate sacrifice that we may live in freedom.

Spring is finally here, the trees are in full bloom and everything looks beautiful. As we head into the busy summer months I wanted to remind you to make your plans for our International Sessions this August in St. Louis, MO. I am sure that I will see your Jurisdictional Representatives and Secretaries, but it would be nice to see all of the ladies as well. We do a lot of work and make many decisions for the Good of the Order. But we also have a good time as well! I know I am looking forward to this year.

As we go to our meetings this year, let us remember our obligations that we have so voluntarily assumed. And please, always remember that our “Rewards are equal to Our Deeds”. Can’t wait to see you all soon.

Chivalrously,

Lady Tracy Boyer

The DeMoulin Museum, founded in 2010, pays tribute to the founders, employees, and amazing products created by this unique factory. Though the museum contains examples of many of DeMoulin’s creations, the lodge initiation devices—including the Bucking Goat; Invisible Paddle Machine; and Lifting and Spraying Machine—are what have attracted visitors from over 30 states.

Train the Trainers – A Membership Program

Includes the following—both power point and printable files:

How to get New Members: Ask!
   Introduction to Odd Fellowship – includes the programs of the Order
   Presenting Odd Fellowship – and a pamphlet to leave with the prospective member

Attracting new members:
   Link your World to your Lodge
   Gaining influence

Prospective Member Card – a great recruitment tool (John and/or Sally know a lot of people who would make great members, but they are either new and not conversant in the programs or a type B personality; but Gary and/or Judy are type A and mingle well with others and have been members for a while).

For the active and organized lodge —
   First Things First
   Odd Fellows & Rebekah Lodge manuals of instruction
   Parliamentary procedures and Motions at a Glance
   Book of Odd Fellowship

This program has been distributed several times over the years, check with your Grand Lodge or Rebekah Assembly office for a copy.
Faith, Hope and Charity:

Are set forth and exemplified in the three degrees of the Encampment. These principles are presented as three firm and solid pillars on which the superstructure of Odd Fellowship is built, and we accept the teachings of these degrees as a beautiful exemplification and illustration of the apostolic motto, “Faith, Hope and Charity, these three, but the greatest of these is Charity”. It is faith or trust in God that gives the ground for hope, and faith practiced and hope enjoyed prepare us to exemplify love in its highest and purest degree. They prepare us to be like God, whose love is unsearchable.

Hospitality.

Friendship is taught in the Patriarchal Degree in a different way to that in which it is taught in lodge, as already set forth. If Moses exemplified friendship, by espousing the cause of his downtrodden and afflicted countrymen, and bearing the great burden that was laid at times upon his heart in their interest committed to him for forty years—Abraham exhibited friendship in the way of hospitality to a stranger. When the angels called at his tent in the plains of Mamre, in the guise of stranger travelers, he invited them in, and treated them as though they were distinguished guests. And so they were, but he did not know it.

Toleration,

As taught in the Golden Rule Degree, is in accordance with the injunction of the Great Teacher, “Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do ye also so to them”. Religious toleration, or the right to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience. Love, as taught in Encampment Odd Fellowship, involves the Golden Rule, and it ranges the European, with all his cultivation and refinement, alongside of the African, Asiatic, Laplander, Jew, Moslem, and the uncultivated child of the forest, with those of every creed and religion, and it hushes the clamor of opposition, and bolts and bars the door against persecution.

Rest—

Is a desirable goal placed before the advancing Patriarchal Odd Fellow, and he or she is constantly encouraged to fix his or her eye upon it and bend his or her steps towards it. The journey of life is eventful. It is full of trials and difficulties. Dangers are thick around us, and the strife of life is a constant peril. The pleasures of the world tend to lure and draw away from virtue and right. Watchfulness and carefulness are needed to pass the various points of life safely, and reach the shore of the rolling river of death, and pitch the tent for the last time for a patient and quiet waiting the summons that shall call us to the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

Spring has sprung and the dreaded income tax season has passed. We can now concentrate on obtaining new Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. Flowers are blooming just like the new life for Odd Fellows.

We are continuing to visit individual lodges and it seems it is still very well received. I continue to be amazed how many members are not aware of all of our wonderful programs being a member has to offer. Every presentation we have made, when finished, numerous members come to us and say “I didn’t know we had all these programs”. Our Officers and Representatives are not doing their job in communicating to the lodges. All Grand Secretaries should order the “Membership Handbook” for each of their members. A ton of valuable information is printed in these books.

With warmer weather here, we should all look for a new project to work on for our lodge. How about planting a tree for he who comes after me on the lodge property, or in the city park, or on the school grounds. Make sure you let the local newspaper know so they can take pictures and write about it in the next paper. How about seeing that all of the graduating members or their relative apply for a scholarship or grant from the Educational Foundation. You can get the applications “on line”. Maybe, as I have stated before, just paint and spruce up the old lodge hall. I know that many of our members are certainly “senior citizens”, but we can ALL do some little things. Maybe just sit in their chairs and paint the lower section of the wall????

We can plan a summer rally or picnic for members and their families; invite the neighbor or friend or co-worker to attend. Plan for a booth at the local fair or city festivity with lots of free information pamphlets to hand out.

We all should have completed our Annual Reports to Grand bodies and then to The Sovereign Grand Lodge and I.A.R.A. We all should have installed our new officers and learned about their programs. Let’s get behind our officers and get our lodges off of the bench and get going!!!

We are going to continue making personal visits and “preaching” the benefits of being or becoming a member of the greatest organization in the world.

I hope you all enjoyed a fantastic Easter and look forward to a wonderful Memorial Day. Keep working for Odd Fellowship & Rebekah Odd Fellowship. Please get at least one new member to replace yourself and keep your lodge alive. We can’t afford to lose anymore!!!

May 2017

Greetings to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs,

The bus routes, hotels and meals are being finalized; the delegates are getting ready to begin a memorable journey in July on the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth 2017 tour.

The program was saddened to lose Board Member and Pennsylvania coordinator Charles ‘Pops’ Shorten. His ability to gather volunteers, answer questions, calm delegates and work tirelessly for many years will be missed.

To those jurisdictions that have sponsored a delegate, volunteered to serve a meal or donated to the tour, THANK YOU. Your commitment to this program of The Sovereign Grand Lodge proves our Order is the best fraternal organization in the world. Without you, the cost of the tour would be unattainable for many. The Board of Directors would like to thank the following for their donation: Myrtle Rebekah Lodge North Carolina $100.00; CC & Lois Kurtz Virginia $100.00; Southeastern Association $100.00; Corfu Rebekah Lodge New York $25.00; United Past Grand Matriarchs $10.00; Neith Lodge Louisiana IM Pops Shorten $50.00; Queen Esther Rebekah Lodge Louisiana IM Pops Shorten $50.00; Grand Lodge District of Columbia $8,000.00; PP-IARA Brenda Reed $25.00; VP-IARA Linda Thompson $400.00; Pearl Rebekah Lodge Oregon $300.00; Arlan & Donna Miller Illinois $100.00; Pleasant Valley Rebekah Lodge New York $25.00; Tarpon Springs Lodge Florida $125.00; Orange Lodge Florida $125.00; Gulf Lodge Florida $125.00; Lakeside Rebekah Lodge Minnesota $40.00. Forest Lodge Maryland, Sycamore Rebekah Lodge and Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge New York serve meals. Thank you for volunteering and serving a home cooked meal.

Adult tour leaders who have volunteered, and in some cases take time off work, to spend 2 weeks with complete strangers are to be thanked for their commitment to this program. Pennsylvania volunteers greet and send off all in Philadelphia plus host meals and tour sites in the city. Ottawa volunteers take the buses on a tour of that city. The New York staff will spend 2 weeks making sure all aspects of the New York experience will be unforgettable and deserve a big thank you also. Coordinating bus routes in the city is no easy task, and feeding 287 is a challenge, but one the New York staff handles with ease. Walking, walking, walking, all will walk many miles during the 2 weeks on the tour. How many miles do you think they will walk?

To date the delegate total is 264 young people, 14 tour leaders and 9 New York staff from 45 states, jurisdictions and countries. Would you like to volunteer in 2018 to experience our diverse group? Did your lodge, encampment, auxiliary, district, or jurisdiction, send a delegate this year or did you have to cut back and not sponsor this year? Now is the time to plan for the 2018 tour. Ask another lodge or unit to jointly sponsor a delegate or provide funds for a meal or hotel. Any donation, no matter how small or large, makes a difference to the program and is greatly appreciated.

The 68th Year of the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Tour is just about here, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Janet L. Bruce, Executive Director
