Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This is my sixth and final letter to our order as your leader. This is my “Swan Song”. It is hard to believe that the year has gone by so quickly. I would like to start by giving thanks.

First, thank you to my home jurisdiction of Connecticut for all of the support you have given me as I made this journey. A special thanks to my Testimonial Committee for having put together a weekend that I will remember for the rest of my life.

Second, I would like to thank all of the jurisdictions that I have had the privilege to visit. The brothers and sisters always welcomed me with fellowship and friendship. Words can not express my feelings as I look back at these visits. A special thanks to the Jurisdiction of Kentucky. As the Sovereign Grand Warden, this was my first visitation. I was as nervous as I had ever been when the 2 representatives showed me the ropes. I learned a lot on that visit.

To my Executive Board members, thank you for all you have done. Your support has made this job much easier. Deputy Sovereign Grand Master Doug and Sovereign Grand Warden Wes I wish you all the best as you climb the ladder.

I must also extend my gratitude to all of the Past Sovereign Grand Masters who guided me through my years. You were there for me when I had questions, you gave me wise counsel when I was struggling with a problem. You listened to me when I was uncertain, and you let me make my own decisions. Your advice was a lot more important to me than you know. Thank you.

To my Appointed Officers, thank you for stepping up to the plate when I needed you! Your support has made this job so much easier and I appreciate the sacrifices you have made to stand with me. A special thanks to my Aide-de-camp, John Slaney. You travelled with me to both General Ken Laswell’s Testimonial as well as the Canadian War Memorial ceremony. You stood at my side at The Tomb of The Unknowns. Our time together will always be one of my special memories.

To all the jurisdictions and members who have been working to “Make a Difference” my sincerest gratitude for your dedication. Your donations to the youth or the donations you will make to my “Pail of Change” will help our Youth Programs go forward and grow. A special thank you to the Jurisdiction of Quebec for their presentation of nearly $500 worth of change in a can. Guess who will have to carry it to Session! I’ll give you one clue, it is NOT Quebec!

For the lodges and Jurisdictions who focused on Membership and brought in at least 1 member thank you! You did a great job and I hope that you will continue to grow.

To General Commanding Ken Laswell and IALAPM President Lady Estella Crowder thank you for your support. A special thanks to MY President Linda L. Thompson, you are and will always be my friend.

To my wife Connie, thank you! You have been my secretary, my typist, my scheduler,

Hello my Sisters and Brothers,

I have just returned from yet another great visit. The true joy of this “job” is to have the opportunity to meet with the members in the many Assemblies across the United States and Canada. I must say thank you again for this time in my life. I want to take time to express my appreciation to the many friends who have sent me cards, letters and “goodies” to help me as I recover from my accident in February. Further, I am grateful to those who have accepted an office for the upcoming sessions in August. You will make it wonderful!

At this time, I would like to introduce you to your Appointed Officers. Please know that when I picked these Sisters it was without any doubt that they were the ones for the job. I rely heavily on my gut feelings and they have not let me down yet, well, except when I don’t listen to that still small voice! So let me introduce you:

Debbie Guthrey, Marshall, Arizona:
Debbie was born in Indiana and moved to Arizona in 1963. She joined her Rebekah Lodge in 1995, where she served many offices. Debbie has served two terms as President of the Rebekah Assembly of Arizona. Married to Dan for 45 years, they have 2 children Chris and Kim along with 6 grandsons, who are in to sports-big time.

Carolyn Schaffer, Conductor, New Mexico: Carolyn and her husband, Frank, have been married for 54 years and make their home in Farmington, New Mexico. The Schaffer’s have three adult children, Dennis, Diane and Darla. Also, in the family are eight grandchildren, four great-granddaughters and one great grandson. Carolyn currently serves as Secretary-Treasurer in her home lodge San Juan Rebekah Lodge.

G. Diane Cruxton, Musician, Ontario:
Also, Diane and I are part of the group known as “Ruth’s Girls”. Diane also served as Musician for Ruth Battaglia in 2007. Diane lives in Brooklin, Ontario, and is very active in her lodge church and community. When you hear her play you will certainly be tapping your toes!

Carla Branton, Chaplain, Colorado:
Carla was initiated in the Alpha Theta Rho Girls’ Club in 1968 and joined the Rebekah’s in 1972. Carla is also a Past Grand Matriarch and Past President of the DALAPM. Carla is a third generation in the Order, her daughter and granddaughter are also members of Theta Rho. Carla and Mark have shared 35 years with 2 children and 4 grandchildren. Carla is a medical bookkeeper.

Pamela Ottas, Guardian, British Columbia: Pam was born in England and lived there until the war was over. After the death of her father in 1949, Mum and two daughters moved to Canada. Pam was widowed in 2010, but she and her husband had six children. Now Pam has fourteen grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren, aged two to nineteen. Pam lives in a small town, Princeton where she serves on two community boards and teaches crafts and card making to handicapped adults.

Vicki Valaine Braucci, Guardian, Connecticut: Vicki is a charter member of Mercy Lodge, the newest lodge in Connecticut.

Dear Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers, and Sisters,

Well, we start this newsletter where we left off last time. We were on the way to Arlington for the Tomb Pilgrimage, after getting there we had a GMC Executive Board Meeting on Saturday Morning. We also had a large meal at the Banquet, and I was asked to speak and I was tongue tied and could not seem to think of anything to say. My first!

I escorted the Sovereign Grand Master, our Commander-in-Chief, while he laid the Wreath for the entire body of IOOF. After that we went down the hill and laid our personal wreaths for our jurisdictions. I laid the wreath for the GMC. It did not feel right, but I can understand why the Army wants it done that way. We were taking too much time and noisy up on the Tomb Site. But it doesn’t seem the same. I think that one wreath by the International Leaders would be enough, but if the others didn’t have the opportunity, then they probably wouldn’t come. Looks like you can’t win no matter what you do.

After the Tomb, we went home then back East again for the New York Department Council sessions in Lake Geneva, New York. We had a great time and we received a very large basket of fruit. By the way, how many of you knew that Charles Dickinson, their adjutant, was a professional Jockey and made enough money to not have to do anything for the rest of his life. What a success story!

The next trip was to go to Southern New England in Massachusetts. Charles Teague was doing a great job as we knew that he would. Capt. Doreen Slaney is now the adjutant there and is quickly getting a handle on it. They had a big vote deciding on whether they wanted to join Northern New England and the Maine members that was there said that they would like to join also. They voted to do so and include Maine if they decided to do so also.

We next went to Ontario’s Department Council Sessions and they did great. Andre is doing an excellent job and with the proper direction could become one of the greats.

After that we went next to the Canadian War Memorial in Ottawa, ON. It was interesting to note that the PM must be there for the Canadian Government to allow the laying of the wreaths. Besides laying the GMC wreath, I was allowed to lay three more for the jurisdictions that didn’t show up. I really enjoyed myself and it was in a more relaxed setting like the MS Tomb.

After returning home again, to wash clothes, which is every time in between trips we took off for Maine. Boy, that is a long trip, like California or Arizona. Fred has learned a lot and is off and running. By the way, Maine voted to merge with SNE and NNE, which will make it in the running for the largest jurisdiction with Pacific North West. That may be for the best, as they are the same ones going to each other Department Councils anyhow. They will save each other two weekends.

Then the last for this news article is Pennsylvania Department Council. They do their Sessions in an unusual way. Their Grand Lodge meets first in the morning and being that we were there, we decided to visit. They started a little early and when I looked in the door I thought that it was the State Legislator Meeting. Not knowing very many of them I didn’t recognize any of them quickly peeking in so had to get someone to show me where the room was, and it was the same room. I felt very foolish and they had a big laugh at my expense. Their setup was in a semi-circle, which was very unique, as I had never seen that before. I believe that they are going to work on a Grand Decoration of Chivalry for the Heros of the 9/11 plane that went down in PA. Justin is a real spark plug there and only 33 years old. Wow!

I still have the Iowa Camp to go to before the Baltimore GMC Sessions. I am going to get to ride in a paddle-wheeler. We used to have one Peoria a few years back. Being that it is also a Camp, I expect I will see some fine sword work.

Hope that all can come to the GMC Sessions as we need all of you and there are a lot of resolutions that need to be discussed and voted on.

I wish all of the very best in the coming months as my term is coming to an end. Hope I didn’t disappoint many of you with my leadership as I was only doing “Whatever I had to do to Survive”.

Not just your leader, but your friend,

Chivalrously,

/s/ Gen. R.L. ‘Ken’ Lasswell

Vicki will be retiring this year from her teaching career in Social Studies. Vicki serves as Parish Clerk in her church along with Chairperson of the Liturgy Committee. Vicki and Vince have two daughters and four grandchildren.

Millis Buckley, Ambassador of Good Will, Connecticut: Although the position that Millis was given is not a legitimate office, Both SGM John Miller and I decided that we wanted to have one more member of our team. Now I have asked Millis for a biography several times, I still do not have one...however, those that love and know Millis are aware of her kind nature and knowledge of the workings of our Order. Millis currently serves as Chairperson of the Finance Committee.

There they are, sisters who said yes and will do their best for you and I. As this is my last message to everyone, I will share my closing thoughts one more time:

If I knew you and you knew me –
If both of us could clearly see, And with an inner sight divine
The meaning of your heart and mine –
I’m sure that we should differ less And clasp our hands in friendliness – Our thoughts would pleasantly agree, If I knew you and you knew me.

With fraternal love,

20 - I.O.O.F. News — Vol. 21, Issue 4
July 2018

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

Hopefully I got you attention in the May-June article.

Still the question of how to get new members exists, and the answer is: Ask!

But in order to ask you need to be informed. For that is the challenge, an uninformed member (the reason for many not asking prospective members) and a slack meeting lodge will not keep the novitiate. So, what are we, or your lodge, going to do to keep those new members?

Education at several levels—within the membership program there is an exercise called: First Things First—which guides a lodge into Education—of the philosophy of the Order, the programs, operating a lodge (parliamentary procedures) efficiently; along with creating a mission statement for the coming year and then assists in creating a calendar of events.

Then when you are comfortable with knowing what you/we belong to, then it makes you comfortable to Ask prospective members.

The next step is to have a busy lodge that will create interest, which in turn will create the question of how do I become a part of Odd Fellowship. Not only promoting the programs and projects of the Order and the community, but activities for the members. The lodge would do well to focus on one project for a year or two years. What is your lodge known for, or for that matter what is Odd Fellowship known for?

Fraternally,

/s/ Jon Petersen
Membership Chairman
