Dear Brothers and Sisters,

At this time I wish to share my installation speech with you:

Good Evening, I wish to thank everyone for attending the installation of the officers of The Sovereign Grand Lodge and the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, and I would like to thank and welcome our Brothers and Sisters from overseas who have travelled many miles to be here.

I would like to recognize and give a very special thank you to the members of the installing staff that have done a wonderful job this evening. Each one of you are special to Patty and I and we appreciate your willingness to perform the ceremony tonight.

I would like to thank the members of The Sovereign Grand Lodge for their confidence and support in electing me to serve as your Sovereign Grand Master. I am very humbled and grateful to each one of you for bestowing this honor on me and allowing me to serve during this 200th year of Odd Fellowship in North America.

I would also like to thank Sister Patty Heighton, President of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, General S. Ray Johnson, General Commanding of the General Military Council, and Lady Michelle Jones President of the International Association, Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant for their support and friendship. It is an Honor and a privilege to serve with each one of you! It has been an amazing experience so far, and we’ve only just begun.

To the Brothers and Sisters from my home Jurisdiction of Colorado, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude for your confidence and support, as I pursued my dream of serving The Sovereign Grand Lodge. Thank you for everything you have done and continue to do for me. Would all the Members from the Grand Jurisdiction of Colorado, please rise and be recognized.

To the Brothers and Sisters from my home lodges, Canon City Odd Fellows #7 and Harmony Rebekah Lodge #96, all of you are amazing people. You have pledged your support and help from the very beginning and you have delivered everything needed to make this year a truly special time. Thank You.

And now I would like my family to stand for introduction. My Mom and Dad, Raymond and Geraldine Pittman, our Son Raymond R.J. Pittman, our Daughter Rebecca Heckenlively, and our Nephew Steven Hunsaker. We are missing a few members of the family. RJ’s Wife Noha, and our Granddaughter Amy, Rebecca’s Husband, Ryan, and my three sisters and their husbands. We look forward to them attending the Testimonial Celebration and possibly The SGL sessions next year.

And last, but not least, the Love of my life, my Wife, Mira. I love you and thank you for your continuing love and support, I couldn’t do this without you.

As I travelled to Baltimore, Maryland the birthplace of Odd Fellows in America, a four-day drive from Colorado, I considered the travel difficulties that Brother Wildey might have encountered in the 1800’s, long before the invention of the air-co-plane things. He made at least three trips across the Atlantic Ocean, with the only option for travel being sailing across on a boat. Each of those trips took 21 days each way. How amazing, that he made multiple trips across the ocean and each one of those trips ended successfully?

As we begin the celebration of our 200th year of Odd Fellowship in North America I would like to share a few comments made by C.S. Wardle in his Farewell address to Brother Wildey as he prepared to travel back to Baltimore in 1826.

“As an Odd Fellow Worthy Grand Master, in the name of the Order, I give you their best thanks. To you, and to you only, the United States of America are indebted, for the existence of the inestimable blessings of Odd Fellowship! But for you, —that truly great country would have been, —at this hour, —without one of the most social, moral and benevolent institutions ever formed by man. —To you belongs, distinctly and unequivocally, the glorious title of, Founder and Father of American Odd fellowship.”

“This Title, most worthy Sire, none can dispute with you—it is clearly, —plainly yours—and your name will be revered by future ages, when the memory of heroes and conquerors will have been forgotten.”

In 1st Corinthians 3:10 The Apostle Paul, when speaking to the church, introduced the metaphor of a
Hello my Sisters and Brothers,

I wish to share my installation speech with you at this time.

Good Evening My Sisters and Brothers, Family and Friends. Here we are at the Installation of Officers for the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies and the Sovereign Grand Lodge. I thank each and every one of you for being in attendance this evening. A warm thank you to the Installing Staff for accepting the positions when asked and being a part of this memorable event.

A special welcome to our Over Seas Visitors who are in attendance this evening. It is always a pleasure to see you and thank you for being here. I look forward to working with you over this next year and visiting with some of your members as we travel through the road of Odd Fellowship. Wishing you safe travels back to your homeland.

Thank you to my Appointed Officers for accepting these positions. It truly was one of the most difficult decisions I have had to make. The Executive is changing again, and I welcome all the Officers to a new year. I am truly honored to work with each and everyone of you. Truly blessed to have my mom as my Marshal and yes, she did receive an Official Letter asking her to accept this position and yes, I did receive an Official response. Mom was my Marshal the first time I went through the Assembly in my Jurisdiction.

The names John P. Entwisle, John Welch, James Gettys and James Ridgley, do they have special meaning to you? If I add Thomas Wildey? Now, it comes together. These 5 men started the Washington Lodge No. 1 at the Seven Stars Tavern here in Baltimore. On the night of April 26, 1819 history in the making started the course that many of us assembled in this room will follow to become a part of this Great Order on the North American Continent. It is credit to these men, that Doug, Michelle, S. Ray and I will be leaders during the 200th Anniversary year.

A new chapter in my book of memories is being written tonight as I accept the responsibilities of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies President. It is a position I will hold with honor and pride as we face the challenges of the coming year Together. TOGETHER WE CAN is my motto and Through Odd Fellowship all things are possible if we work TOGETHER!

We need to take the time to listen to new ideas from younger members and give them a chance to try their ideas. The Old way is not always the best way. Remember when you joined the Order? I am sure you had ideas that you wished to try, give them the same chance. Someone gave me the opportunity and I stand before you today as an International Leader, without the support of my lodges, Jurisdictions, family and friends I would not be in this position.

Thank you to the Past Presidents and Past Sovereign Grand Masters for your guidance. You have been an invaluable support and wealth of knowledge. Without you I would not stand before you today as President.

A special Thank You to Brother Terry Barrett for all he does in the Order. Your hard work and dedication does not go unnoticed. I appreciate everything you have done for me over the years.

3 years ago, Sovereign Grand Master Doug Pittman, General S. Ray Johnson, General Commanding, Lady Michelle Jones, President International Association of Ladies Patriarchs Militant and I were seated on a dais at the Change of Command as strangers. Today we are here as Leaders of this great Order and most of all I would like to say as Friends. I offer my congratulations to each of you and I look forward to the year ahead working Together as a TEAM.

At this time, I would like to ask my home Jurisdiction of the Atlantic Provinces to please stand, my Associate Jurisdiction of Maine and if the members from the North East Jurisdictions will stand to be acknowledged. We are connected through a children’s camp that belongs to the Jurisdictions of the North East. I am super proud of the work that these Jurisdictions contribute to the Children’s Camp and I would

Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers, and Sisters,

\[\text{~ Installation Speech ~}\]

Greetings Chevaliers and Ladies,

I am very pleased to announce that after January 1, 2019 we will only need 2 Cantons to make a Department. When you get your Department organized and need help just let me know; My TEAM is standing by ready to help. I would like to thank everyone for all the support over my eleven years so far on the GMC Executive Committee. As I have always liked to say “You only get out of any position or organization what you are willing to put into it.” Everything we do must be fun and enjoyable or we will stop doing it. Gen. Lasswell had a Great program “Do whatever it takes to survive”, my TEAM will take this and add to it, E.M.T.: Educate, Motivate and Train.

By the Code of General Laws of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at this point and time, you must be either an Odd Fellow or a Rebekah member to become a Canton member of the Patriarchs Militant. The PM Branch is part of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. Let us not forget the Encampment Branch of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The degrees are very important and with educational teachings that those of us that have taken them will never forget.

My program: (see on pageXXX

Theme: Show pride in wearing the PM Uniform. Promote the Patriarch Militant Branch of the Order through activity and dedication plus the proper wear of the uniform. Chevaliers – this degree is based upon the principle of universal justice and the doctrine of rights, advocated by peaceful methods, but if necessary, defends with exercise of force.

September 2018

Dear Chevaliers, Ladies, Brothers and Sisters,

Installation Remarks:

Sovereign Grand Master-Elect, Brother Doug Pittman; President-elect International Association of Rebekah Assemblies, Sister Patty Heighton; General Commanding, General S. Ray. Johnson, our distinguished overseas guests, Ladies, Chevaliers, Brothers and Sisters. It is indeed my honor to be standing here as the President of the International Association Ladies Auxiliaries Patriarchs Militant. I would like to first thank the installing staff: Lady Judy Gordon, Installing Officer; Lady Kathryn Bellmore, Aide; Lady Barbara McLaren, Adjutant; Lady Mae Haussler, Chaplain; and Lady Debra LaVergne, Sentry; Lady Pat Wilson, Musician.

You did a beautiful job as always. To all those who participated in the drill and Change of Command. You all did an amazing job. To all of my officers, Thank you, Thank you, Thank you for being willing to accept the various jobs I have requested you take on. I would also like to thank each and every one of you for taking time out of your busy schedules to be here. Your attendance is very much appreciated.

My goal for this year is to get more youth and young adults involved in not only the Patriarchs Militant but all branches of Odd Fellowship. We say this all the time, but the youth is the future of our Order. If I had never joined Theta Rho, I don’t believe I would ever building under construction to make a point about doing good work and he said. “By the grace God has given me, I laid a foundation as a wise builder, and someone else is building on it. But each one should build with care.”

My brothers and sisters, just like the Apostle Paul, Thomas Wildey wisely laid the foundation for Odd Fellowship in North America. And now it is our responsibility to continue to build our order with our best efforts and our best materials.

I have been told that my program and emblems are very different, so I would like to explain. First, I want to say to you “Chahta Sia Hoke” which means (I AM CHOCTAW) Yes, I am a member of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma, a heritage that I am very proud of!

I chose the Indian Chief and the Dream Catcher because the chief is the chosen leader of his people. The outer round hoop of the Dream Catcher represents the circle of life, with no beginning and no end. It is woven to resemble a spider’s web and a single bead represents the spider. Native Americans believe that the night air is filled with dreams both good and bad. Legend says that the spider web design would allow good dreams to pass through and float down the hanging beads and feathers to sleeping children. Bad dreams would be caught in the web, and as the first rays of the morning light hit the dream catcher the bad dreams would disappear.

My slogan: Catch a dream into the future of Odd Fellowship. Represents my optimistic view that our future will be the good dreams that flow through the dream catcher to every one of you.

My theme reminds us that our past and our traditions are still important in defining who we are and the values we represent as Odd Fellows.

Followed by my Challenge: Just Get One! If every member would get one new member it changes your lodge, your jurisdiction, and our Order by 100%.

My goal is “Unity of Our Membership” Represented by the emblems of an Indian Chief and the Bundle of sticks. The chief united the people and the bundle of sticks represents the strength of that unity.

My Projects are all projects of The Sovereign Grand Lodge with a special emphasis on Vision—Because, what greater gift can we give, than the gift of sight?

Although it is not listed in my program book, I want you to know that I am a strong supporter of the Rose Parade float program and encourage and ask for your support as well.

In Conclusion I would like to offer one more quote from Brother C. S. Wardle’s Farewell address to Brother Wildey.

“To you, Sire, we are indebted for all this—you laid the plan—you formed the whole design—you have now the happiness of seeing a new creation rising up around you. I say a new creation, Sire, because no man can become a genuine Odd Fellow without becoming at the same time—A Better Man!!

Brothers and Sisters, Thomas Wildey laid the foundation, we must now continue to build on that foundation as we “Catch a Dream into the Future of Odd Fellowship.”

Thank You Very Much.

Fraternally,

Douglas E. Pittman
Sovereign Grand Master
Independent Order of Odd Fellows

In and out of the Order, we have people who mentor us and help us with many things during our lives. They don’t seek credit, nor do they want to be recognized for their work and dedication to many things. They have laughed, wiped tears, hugged me tight when I needed it, cheered me on through everything I have chosen to do, they have made me mad and I have frustrated them at times I am sure. But they supported me no matter what I did, despite me not always listening to their advice…. Imagine that! There were hard lessons learned and I have grown into a better person because I had to stand on my own two feet. But they always loved me unconditionally……. So, for those of you who do not believe in HEROES – You haven’t met my Dad.

Many Thanks and much Love to all of you!

In Friendship, Love and Truth,

Patty Heighton
President—I.A.R.A.

March of the Nutcracker
Motto: E.M.T.: which stands for Educate, Motivate and Train.

We must Educate/Mentor new and many of our current members on our laws, rules and regulations. Always keep all members Motivated, members having fun and enjoying what they do will bring in new members. As a Military Unit we must Train on our marching and sword proficiency constantly to remain sharp. But always “Treat others as you wish to be treated.” We must work together as a TEAM! ?????????!

Aim/Goal: Increase membership in the Odd Fellows and Rebekah’s, then increase membership in both PM and LAPM Branches. We must build the Basic Membership, Odd Fellows and Rebekah’s before our units can grow. We all must work hard on retaining members. Otherwise we have wasted the effort to bring them in the first place.

Projects: Vietnam Veterans Memorial Museum and Odd Fellows and Rebekah’s Visual Research.

I know everyone was waiting for me to Lecture to you about membership, but I will not. It is our job as GMC to make it easy for you to bring in and keep new members. If we do not make changes to our uniforms to make it easier to obtain new members soon we will be obsolete. GMC has already begun to make changes that should help improve our Order. My TEAM is here to support and help each jurisdiction grow, we will answer questions about uniforms or Constitutions and By-laws.

What we will not do is treat you in an unprofessional manner. I plan on everything we do this year to be fun and enjoyable working as a TEAM. “If something we do is not fun, we usually quit doing it”. The plan is for people to ask the PM Branch to become members. You laugh and think I am crazy when I say that, in Texas I gave a speech in my Class A Uniform about joining the PM Branch, one person signed a petition right away, but they needed to join the Rebekah’s first. So, they gave her a Rebekah petition and she got started, so it can happen. Thank you once again for putting me in this position, I think!!!

Always loving, always encouraging, and always lifting me up in all that I do. I will Love you always.

GOALS

Sovereign Grand Master’s Goals for 2018-2019: this coming Year are pretty straight forward. I want to bring forth the principal that if we stand as a “United Force” we can overcome anything that confronts us. Therefore my goal is “Unity of Our Membership”. To take this one step further please consider my emblems: The Indian Chief and the Bundle of Sticks. Indian Chiefs were the chosen leaders of their people and they had the ability to unite their people, and the Bundle of Sticks signifying that unity of the people and the strength it represents.

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Pilgrimage for Youth Proclamation

To all Members of all Degrees of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Fraternal Greetings:

The Pilgrimage for Youth having been organized in 1949 provides educational tours to the United Nations and other historical landmarks. Approximately 49,000 students have participated in the program since its inception.

The 68th tour is now being organized whereby additional students will ‘live the Spirit of Odd Fellowship’ in the coming years. These young people are the future leaders and this is our contribution to society.

Therefore, I, Douglas E. Pittman, Sovereign Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, by authority in me duly vested, do proclaim that:

The month of October is Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Pilgrimage for Youth Month. All units are asked to make immediate plans for their delegates and to support the Pilgrimage in all ways possible.

Done in the City of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, this 25th day of August 2018 in the 200th year of our Order.
