Greeting Brothers and Sisters,

This is the time of year that we all start to make our way outdoors to get a breath of fresh air, to see the flowers and trees with buds and blooms and the smell in the air of fresh cut grass. This hopefully gives us all a new look on life and gives us the hope that we can return to somewhat of a normal lifestyle and put COVID behind us. We can return to our lodges and start having our meeting face to face, see our friends that we might not have seen in months and enjoy the wonderful fellowship that has been put on hold due to COVID.

We have seen that most Jurisdictions have scheduled their Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly sessions to meet in person, some not as long as prior, but still to meet and conduct what business that needs to be done to keep the Order moving forward. Our Executive Board has been and will be very busy the next 3 months making visits and working on getting things ready for our annual sessions in August which will be held in Winston-Salem.

We are getting ready to make our annual trip to the Tomb of the Unknowns next week and are looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible there. This is a great honor to be allowed to have our wreath laying ceremony at the Tomb and at the bottom of the steps for all our Jurisdictions. The laying of the wreaths at the Tomb of the Unknowns is an opportunity to express our appreciation and sympathy to those who gave their lives that we could celebrate freedom. Please try and make time to partake in this event, you won’t be sorry, it will be a memory that will last a lifetime.

I would like to mention on my visit to Rhode Island Grand Lodge, that when it was time for qualified candidates to take the Grand Lodge degree, that the Grand Warden, who was a younger man got up and did the complete degree by memory, he did not have a book with him, I was so impressed that he took the time to memorize this. This shows that we still have the power to get these younger people in our Order and watch them grow.

We would like to thank everyone and every lodge that has donated to the Ukraine relief fund to assist our Brothers and Sisters that have fled to Europe for help, food and shelter. As of last check, we have received over $75,000.00 to send to them for relief. This is another great example what true Oddfellows and Rebekahs can do when help is needed. I am very proud of each and every one who has donated to this relief.

Keep in mind that if you have any advance legislation to be presented at this year’s session in August, please get it into the SGL office as soon as possible. I am looking forward to a busy session, working on correcting several items in our code book. We have had a few Jurisdictions instituting new units: Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Encampment and Canton, we are coordinating a new lodge in Egypt, which said they will have several new members wishing to join and create new lodges. Keep up the good work on recruiting these new members.

I am looking forward to my upcoming visits to renew friendships and make new ones, and please let us know if there is anything The Sovereign Grand Lodge can do to assist you in anyway, we are only a phone call away.

Fraternally,

/s/ Chuck Lusk
Sovereign Grand Master

"we seek to improve and elevate the character of mankind"
Dear Sisters and Brothers,
Greetings to all of you,

O Canada! I am thrilled to report that my travels took me to Calgary, Alberta for their sessions in early April. Traveling over the border was not terribly difficult and returning to the United States was not too bad either. In June I will be back in Canada for the Canadian War Memorial wreath laying and then on to Saskatchewan for their sessions. These visits point to several facts. The isolation of Covid is on the wane and these jurisdictions we have not visited for two years have continued with completely normal sessions and work going on. It is a relief to find this to be true and it shows Canada that we have not overlooked them. O Canada!

I have come across two inspirational jurisdictional projects this spring that I would like to briefly share with you. Alberta’s Military Council has a program called Crippled and Afflicted Children. It is an amazing project that hand delivers checks to deserving families of children with special needs each and every month. The money is so useful to provide equipment and services for the children and the members who sponsor the child and visit the family with monthly checks become part of the family. I was deeply touched by this project. Our Order makes the world a better place.

Second, I was in Ohio quite recently and found a project the Rebekahs fund that is quite moving as well. It is Sally’s Flag Fund and money is raised to purchase the flags that are placed on veterans’ graves for Memorial Day. Flags flying in cemeteries all over America is such a beautiful tribute to veterans and I applaud the Rebekah Assembly of Ohio for stepping up to the plate to keep the flags flying in Ohio. Again, our Order makes the world a better place.

In keeping with my motto “Together We Can Strengthen our Roots,” I encourage all of you to make a difference in your community. It doesn’t have to be a huge project. A plan to visit shut-ins or bring the infirmed a meal or flowers makes a huge difference. Don’t ever think your lodge is too small to take on a project. It’s the commitment to assisting others in the spirit of friendship, love and truth that makes us special.

I only wish all of you could travel with me to see the remarkable works of our Order. You would be thrilled. I hope to see many of you along the way as spring travel continues.

With Love, Pray for peace,

Fraternally,

s/ Kathy Richen
President I.A.R.A.

May 2022
Greetings,

I hope this newsletter finds everyone doing well. I hope that everyone is trying to adjust to these crazy weather conditions.

With the communication from the Sovereign Grand Master Brother Chuck Lusk on our meeting restrictions which for the most part have been lifted. We need to start returning to meetings and getting involved back into our communities. As we plan our meetings, sessions and events please take all necessary precautions needed to ensure safety. We are in full swing with our visitations to jurisdictional sessions and events, it has been great spending several weekends with my counterparts Brother Chuck and Sister Kathy. I want to Thank the jurisdictions for the courtesies extended to me and my officers.

As of this newsletter we will probably have already attended the Eighty-eighth Pilgrimage to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Virginia. As always, we need to be solemn in our ceremonies as we pay respect to those who have given so much for our freedoms. We need to learn and teach of the history of Arlington to others and our young people of and about our ceremonies there for our Order. We need to show respect and conduct ourselves in a quiet orderly manner fitting for those who are entombed there. We will also be laying Wreaths in Ottawa, Ontario on the weekend of June 3rd - 5th at the Canadian War Memorial. I feel honored to be able to participate in these events as General Commanding honoring our brave men and women.

The last weekend in May is Memorial Day try and get your lodges involved in your communities’ Memorial events, services or parades. June 14th is Independent Order of Odd Fellows Memorial Day, coordinate a memorial ceremony with the units in your area – lodge, district, battalion, etc. Also, Canada Day, July 1 and 4th of July are great opportunities to get your lodges involved in your communities with events and parades.

As The Sovereign Grand Lodge Sessions are quickly approaching and you will be filling out your registration forms and sending in please remember to sign up for the Youth Banquet on Friday night, please come and join the Youth at their sessions on Friday and Saturday be part of these Youngsters events encourage them to want to continue their Odd Fellowship journeys.

In closing I ask each of you to continue to check on your Brothers and Sisters who are sick or distress, check on the shut-ins keeping all in our thoughts and prayers. Please continue to keep in our prayers our Brothers and Sisters around the world who are in distress.

Brigadier General Angelo Correa, Sentinel for the General Military Council 2021-2022 who passed away on April 19th 2022, was one of my Officers for this year. He was a very enthusiastic young gentleman who was full of love and a strong wanting to help his fellow man and a great friend. Brig. Gen. Angelo will be greatly missed from our ranks as a strong family man and Brother to us all. Rest in Peace General.

Chivalrously,

General Michael Bowers

Be safe, safe travels to all and we hope to see you very soon.

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

Please see the enclosed letter from the Grand Lodge of Europe.

In addition, I have been receiving some inquiries regarding the procedures for sending funds to assist the Ukrainians.

In communicating with the Hunger & Disaster Board, we have agreed to send $10,000.00 for now and match up to $10,000.00 donated by the Jurisdictions for this relief request; then see what may yet transpire for the future.

If your unit would like to make a donation, and to keep the wire fees to a minimum, send your donations to:

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

The aggression of Russia, Putin, towards Ukraine, is accompanied by many deaths, many refugees today more than 1 million, many injured and enormous damage especially to houses, stations etc. Where the ordinary citizen comes. Where is Putin going?

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Grand Lodge of Poland, was working with 28 brothers in Lwow, Ukraine, to establish a lodge. Like all refugees, they need our help.

In the Grand Lodge of Poland, they are creating a “Fund to Help Ukraine”, which is going to provide three-way assistance:

- purchase and shipping/financing of supplies indicated by the Ukrainian Brothers and Sisters /first aid, toilets, medicines, clothing etc./,
- transfer,
- financing housing and maintenance of refugees from Ukraine.

I propose that the account remains under the administration of the Grand Lodge of Poland, in accordance with the Grand Lodge of Norway.

They have already prepared the first freight transport for Ukraine.

They have created two special accounts for the “Fund to Help Ukraine” PKO Bank Polski:
- 85 1020 5242 0000 2102 0542 5162 PLN,
- 17 1020 5242 0000 2802 0542 5170 EUR

The transfer title is “Help Ukraine”. Decide for yourself which account is more advantageous for you.

Soon they will tell us what help they have already given to our brothers in Ukraine.

All 9 Grand Lodges are participating in this aid campaign. It is distressing to see how families are being torn apart. Women and children flee, and the men are not allowed to leave the country, they have to fight with them.

I inform you of this serious threat from Putin to overthrow our western democratic countries.

Many measures have been taken to isolate Putin. The information Putin is spreading is a lie. For example, 5000 young Russian soldiers were killed in the first day because they thought they were taking part in an army exercise!!

You may also see an opportunity to support this action.

After the COVID pandemic, we are now in the middle of a terrible war.

With best brotherly regards in Friendship, Love and Truth,

Vol. 25, Issue 3 — I.O.O.F. News - 21
May 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters all,

Time passes so quickly, and once again I embrace the opportunity to generate an article expressing the ongoing need and importance of recruiting members, not just to replace ourselves as we advance in age, but to keep our Order vital, advancing to the future with Great expansion. Creating opportunities with fruitful paths and associations for growth; reclaiming the glories of our past to build our future. With a larger complement of members, we can better and more effectively educate the citizenry as to all the good things we represent, captivating their interest to join us and become part of a Worldwide fraternity engaged in “making a difference”, by elevating and lifting up those in need or distress, while enhancing and advancing the quality of life for all, givers and receivers alike.

The need for a stream of new members is always omnipresent and does not remit. It’s not a static process you do once, there is a dynamic ebb and flow to it all, like the tides, the seasons, an ever-evolving cycle securing our longevity. The mix of continued influx of new members and the retention of current members will help to keep our organization running even and smooth. The merging of the new allows for both teaching and learning opportunities for our more seasoned members, an across-the-board infusion if you will.

One means to increase our visibility and demonstrate to others the values we believe remain relevant and central, could be realized through recognizing and honoring the Good Samaritans in your communities and towns. Active community folks presently doing good work about them is a pool of potential applicants we would like to attract to join our ranks, based upon their beneficial and noble demonstrations as to how they conduct their lives, helping others and improving life conditions which surround them. The jurisdiction of West Virginia, and perhaps others, have previously organized an Awards banquet and ceremony, honoring local community leaders, Good Samaritans who have made life better in some instrumental and significant ways. A celebration dinner to honor them offers great exposure as a recruitment tool, putting forth our best face, introducing Odd Fellowship and presenting what we represent to those who are invited or attend, and who may not be fully familiar with our organization. It lets us recognize their special accomplishments, contributions to their surroundings, and to elevate their actions, and tie them in with actions we too believe. I have attended the WV event prior, and what an uplifting and heartwarming experience, accentuating goodness which we recognize and find inspirational.

We need to reach out often to those who we may know directly; family, friends, and those who we may work or worship with. The lodge may eventually erode if we fail to be mindful of routinely revisiting this practice. As indicated, working on membership is not something done once, rather it is a regular, repeated process, like continuing maintenance, a requisite for growth. While we are thankful for each recruit, and recognize the combined importance of every new member, we can’t rest on our laurels, as constant diligence is required to close the gap which has grown across time. It’s important to probe and inquire as to others’ possible interests, so any programs revised or developed can mirror or parallel the individualized wants of your enlarged and diverse Lodge. Listen attentively, always try to include and not dismiss. The Lodge should reflect the enthusiasm of its members along many aspects, from its physical condition, the tailored programs, events, and activities for members to rally around, engage in, lending their support to the benevolent and enriching community programs we may endorse. In all of our interactions, always strive to make the members feel that belonging is an extension of family.

Despite all the uncertainty still of the COVID-19 pandemic, will it continue to present with potential harm to our health, and whatever kinds of changes are made to reduce the risk of unknown effects, what does remain is the omnipresent need to keep up our efforts, even exceed them, to keep the Lodge a welcome shelter from the storm, and a place of comfort and refuge. Yes, we will need to be smart and adaptable to remain safe it seems, though life nonetheless continues, and we must take advantage of every possibility to bring in and attract new Brothers or Sisters, to enlarge our vision and to broaden our footprint. Maximize and persist, following up on each and every potential candidate. With a pattern of declining membership and the general trend of the increasing age of the average member, we can leave no stone unturned in our attempts and endeavors. We can’t continue to ignore or dismiss some of the deficits right in front of us. Knowing it’s sometimes hard to admit our challenges; it may even be uncomfortable to acknowledge them. An easier path might be to ignore the fact of the matter, to dismiss, explain away, or put off until tomorrow. To do so however, will only lead to narrowing of the window for a healthy recovery, diminishing new prospects of being successful, and running out of time or resources. Of course, not all are in such a predicament, in fact, some locales are growing if not robustly flourishing; but conceptually as an expanding fraternity, we fail or succeed together, as the vision is in being universal, one united.

Continue to develop and maintain your social media outreach via Facebook, newsletters, and other publications. This increases our visible presence significantly, particularly with some intermittent and continued degree of social distancing which may still be occurring in some regions periodically. Nice when our media tools allow for creative, fun, meaningful interaction, and dialogue back-and-forth, not merely one-way “telegraphic” postings. It’s a means to also get the members to better know each other as individuals, to deepen our affections for one another. The social platform could educate and update the membership on business, pleasure, activities or charitable events. We could recognize and post about special items, some of the Lodge’s or jurisdictions history, and honoring member longevity, commenting on those needing kind thoughts and prayers, special recognition and so on. To make sure we include members who might not belong to social media platforms, have your secretary develop an email group listing that can be distributed to members for sharing information. Contact your free, local community advertisement paper to see if they are interested in publishing an article about the charitable or community support works your lodge conducts. Reach out to your community Chamber of Commerce, educational school programs, local community centers and government agencies for scheduled events that your lodge members could attend, perhaps even provide a presentation to. This may ultimately lead to inviting other attendees to your lodge’s functions, which might spark their interest in becoming a member. Communicate with other lodges that preside in your jurisdiction and share ideas on recruitment techniques. Perhaps even holding member recruitment seminars or workshops, as conducted in California and elsewhere, could help demonstrate the necessity of this emphasis. Have reference materials and resources available to lodge members and newcomers with regards to all the programs our Order offers. Educate, Educate, Educate!

As summertime approaches, plan a picnic for your members, their families and friends, and invite elements of the community as possible, showing the enjoyment of Unity and belonging. Also, remain cognizant of and take use of existing programs, strategies and incentives which had been developed at one point, but for whatever reason may not now be implemented. Incentives are rewards. Rewards work, use them, craft and tailor them as necessary, create novel ways to sincerely acknowledge and shape good and exemplary performance, and you may be surprised, even flabbergasted, at the result of the outcomes produced. Praise to each and all who contributed to the whole. The more expansion, the more potential draw there is. Once good growth gets going and picks up steam, it can take on a life of its own, a forward driving force, even possibly leading to a spontaneous recovery at some point, like old times. Again, don’t be your own best kept secret, share the word and vision, and keep persisting if you encounter a hiccup. Stay the course, and in a long run, this is what may lead to us being “Reposed until the end of Time”. Nothing less. We’ve been trend setters for ages. First to admit women over other fraternal organizations. Several US presidents were Odd Fellows. Vice President Schuyler Colfax wrote the beautiful Rebekah degree. Look for the three links yet in many towns, often in building cornerstones or pediments. We have developed lodges all across this country and throughout Canada. As already cited, the World of Odd Fellowship now expands 29 distinct countries. What a beautiful world it is! So let’s all keep doing our part and show we can keep growing together, at home and Internationally.

In your fraternal service,

s/ Robert L. Kowalski

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

The 74th tour of the Pilgrimage for Youth program will be going forth as planned! After much disappointment and heartache over the past three years we are finally able to proceed with our program and showcase our beloved Order through our youth.

The tour will begin in Philadelphia on July 9, and be assisted by our good brothers/sisters from Walker Lodge. After touring Philadelphia, the students will then spend the next 5 days in NYC where they will tour and participate in a speech contest. The winner will receive a $2,000.00 scholarship with the runner-up receiving a $1,000.00 award. The next stop is in Boston where the lodges there will be feeding our students lunch and a dinner as well as acting as our tour guides. We will then proceed to Ottawa to tour and see how our Canadian neighbors live, then onto Niagara Falls. After Niagara Falls, we will tour Gettysburg. After Gettysburg we will then go to Washington, DC. On July 21, we will head back to New Jersey where the lodges there will provide a farewell dinner for our students and tour leaders. The students will overnight in Philadelphia and depart for home on July 22.

I want to thank the Board of Directors and The SGL Executive Board for all their hard work to ensure that our program could go forth this year. I would also like to thank the Jurisdictional Chairpersons for all the work they put in to find us students, gather applications and spend many hours fielding questions and concerns from their students and parents. Thank you.

I most certainly want to the members of Walker Lodge, Lodges in Boston, and Lodges in New Jersey to know how much their efforts and support are appreciated; as well as the Lodges in New York who are working at this time to help with meals for our students.

We have kept the price of this tour at $2,000.00 since 2017. The actual cost per student is almost $2,700.00. We have some generous contributors who have helped greatly this year to make up some of the deficit. Boone Lodge #170 has contributed $30,000.00, Walker Lodge $10,000.00, Utah $5,000.00 and California $2,000.00 as well as other various lodges and individuals with another $3,000.00. It is never too late to contribute! Even with all this help we will still be over budget. This program is the lifeblood of our Order. Our numbers continue to decline and lodges continue to close. The legacy of our Order is at stake!

Let’s build for the future and promote Odd Fellowship to our youth. On our website: www.ioofpilgrimageforyouth.com, the first page shows the Statue of Liberty and our vision statement: Gateway to the future, standing on the foundation of our past. Our youth are the future of our Order. We need every lodge to help build our program back to where it was before 9-11. Seek out youth now for next year’s program. I will guarantee that the staff of the Pilgrimage for Youth will be doing our part to show our youth what Friendship, Love and Truth is all about!

Sincerely and Fraternally,
Leonard Bolton, Executive Director
