Did you watch the 2023 Rose Parade? Our float was titled “Hope for Peace”.

The float is worked on all year and the final push of decorations is during the last weeks of December each year by members of the IOOF who congregate in Southern California for a few days of comradery, fellowship & sunny weather. Volunteers come from all the affiliated branches of the Order of the IOOF around the world; the Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, Encampments, Cantons, Junior Odd Fellows Lodge, Theta Rho Girls Clubs, United Youth Groups, family and friends help put together this magnificent float.

Happy New Year!
Dear Youth and Advisors,

January is the beginning of a new year for your Officers and members. I'm very excited about the future of our youth programs and the opportunities that we can make available to all of you. I am always amazed when I get your Jurisdictional newsletters and see all of the wonderful projects you are involved in, not just in your lodges, but in your communities as well. You inspire me to want to know more, do more, and to be more active in my own lodges and my community projects. Thank you for being my inspiration!

Now is the time to set goals for your lodges. What community service programs are you interested in supporting? What projects of the Order would you like to learn more about and support? Do you have membership goals? (I hope so)! Dedicate your meetings to learning your charges, your obligations, valedictions, and supporting one another in doing good works. Take this opportunity to learn about parliamentary procedures from you advisors. Remember always to respect your advisors, respect your members, and to especially respect yourselves. Each and every one of you has a special gift or talent that is valuable to your lodge meetings. Don’t be afraid to share it with others. Be true to yourselves and be good Team players. Teamwork is important and a necessity for the survival of your lodge. Be good listeners and don’t be afraid to share your ideas with others. Remember no one is perfect and we all make mistakes, but that is how we learn. The only time you fail is when you stop trying!

It’s not too early to start planning on attending SGL Youth Days in August. Plan to have fundraisers to help with costs. Iowa has lots of fun activities planned for your meetings. Let me know what you are planning and I will do my best to help promote and support your activities.

I am so proud of all of you! Hope you have a Happy Valentine’s Day! Sending lots of hugs!

My Executive Team and I wish you a safe, healthy, and Blessed New Year!

In Friendship, Love, Truth,

/s/ Michelle L Heckart
Sovereign Grand Master

Are you excited about going to Des Moines, Iowa for International Youth Days? I sure am! I am looking forward to sharing time with you and hope to attend at least part of your session. I feel we need to be present, share your victories and lend encouragement when things don’t go as planned. I promise to do my best to be there to see you in action! Don’t forget to prepare a design to present to the committee to be made into a pin to sell at session. Your design could be the one they choose.

I receive newspapers from many different Jurisdictions and love reading the articles about the many projects that the youth groups are involved in. You are doing so much good in your communities. The Theta Rho watchwords, “In Happiness through Service” are evident in the pictures printed. You find so many great ways to bring happiness to others while having a wonderful time doing it.

I want to commend the Advisors of all of our clubs. We don’t give these hard working people enough credit! A tremendous amount of time and energy is required to keep our clubs active and involved. It takes very special people to teach the young people how to be leaders, to guide them in the ritualistic work of the order and help them to become responsible, caring young adults. Thank you, thank you for all you do for the youth of our order.

I hope you are all having a terrific 2023 and I hope to see many of you in Des Moines in August.

In Friendship

Let’s Get Excited!!!!

Sovereign Grand Lodge, International Rebekah Assemblies, General Military Council, and Joint Youth Days are coming to Des Moines, Iowa August 17th and 18th.

Ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls when I tell you the Jurisdiction of Iowa and many, many other Grand Lodge bodies have donated to this year’s activities to make this years Youth Days the biggest and most fun you’ve ever had is an understatement. The number of people working behind the scenes with your Joint Youth Committee is staggering with support and admiration for the Youth! I am not able to reveal all just yet, but make sure to read upcoming Youth Informers for details.

SGL/IARA Joint Youth Days is only made possible because of our Youth Order. These fine young boys and girls are putting in the work. Fundraisers, raffles and bakes sales combined with gift cards, baskets, and charitable time to raise funds to come to Youth Days warrants our most respect and admiration. I’d like to congratulate a few; Alpha Theta Rho, Spunky Bluebird Theta Rho, Red Rose Theta Rho and Eta Theta Rho for I see you and so does this committee for the work you’re doing already. If you get a chance, I implore everyone to go find these groups on Facebook. It will give you a complete understanding of “Happiness Through Service”.

Here comes the part where I need your help to make this year’s Youth Days even better. I’m calling on all Grand Lodges, Rebekah Assemblies, and Department Councils to help donate funds to help bring more kids this year. Funds will be used for airfare, lodging and meals for the Youth and chaperones to attend. With a more combined effort we can all help support these clubs and kids to experience Odd Fellowship in a whole new environment. The email address is included in this edition of Youth Informer. Please reach out if available to donate.

Ok Kiddos, time to put our thinking caps on. Pin Design deadline is coming up quickly. It’s time to start getting them done. Between the supply chain and our manufacturers, the deadline is set. So, get those artistic design juices flowing and get them to the committee as soon as possible. Also remember to continue working on those community service and fundraising projects. You all are awesome.

I’m looking forward to working with each and every one of you to make this years SGL/IARA Youth Days the most enjoyable and memorable experience. Stay tuned to your Youth Informer for future updates or email me personally if you have questions or would like to donate.

Stay Awesome Everyone!!!!

In FLT

Steve Adams
SGL/IARA Youth Committee Chairman

Pin Design for 2024:
Submit your design for the Youth Pin. Please remember the finished size of the pin is approximately 1”diameter. Keep the design simple. The design must include: the year of the pin, Emblems of the 4 units; Junior Odd Fellow Lodge, Theta Rho Girls Club, United Youth Group & Cadet Corp, the colors to be used. Please take the time and color your designs and make sure your name and address are on the back of the design.

CONTESTS FOR YOUTH!

SEND YOUR CONTEST ENTRIES TO:
Chairman, Steve Adams
Email: seawyo@yahoo.com

Community Service Recognition Award
Send us a list of your community service activities in which your lodge, club, or group participated in without compensation. Provide the description of the projects, amount of money collected/donated, the number of participants and the hours of service provided.

Advisor of the Year 2024
Submit in writing why you feel your advisor should receive this award. Tell us the special things that he or she does to make your meetings more fun. Let us know what your advisor has taught you and how you have grown in knowledge of our order. Although we realize that Assistant Advisors are very special too, this particular award is for the Club/Lodge/Group Advisor only.

Schuyler Colfax Day
Proclamation

To all Officers and Members of all Degrees of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Fraternal Greetings:

Whereas, the Rebekah Degree of Odd Fellowship was adopted in 1851, and the degree was the work of the Honorable Schuyler Colfax, later to serve as Speaker of the House of Representatives and go on to serve as Vice President of the United States of America.

Whereas, the Rebekah Degree provides woman’s softening touch to Odd Fellowship, as founded upon the principles of the Order – faithfulness, hospitality, purity and dedication as portrayed by women of the Bible.

Whereas, because of the untiring efforts of Brother Colfax to provide a Degree for wives and daughters of Odd Fellows, the world now enjoys a Sisterhood of Lodges in twenty countries around the globe.

Therefore, I, Michelle L. Heckart, Sovereign Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, by authority in me duly vested, do proclaim,

That the 23rd day of March 2023 be: Schuyler Colfax Day throughout Odd Fellowship in honor of the birthday of Brother Colfax.

Further, please observe the birthday of Brother Schuyler Colfax by initiating a ‘Colfax Class’ in honor of the celebration.

Done in the City of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, this the 1st day of January 2023, and in the 204th year of our Order.

Yours in F, L & T,

Attest: /s/ Michelle L. Heckart
Sovereign Grand Master

Arthritis Month
Proclamation

To the Officers and Members of all Degrees of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows

Fraternal Greetings:

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are proud to be recognized once again for their support in relieving the pain and suffering caused by arthritis. I along with the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Arthritis Advisory Board, in turn, are proud to recognize everyone who has donated time and money in supporting this cause over the past years.

At these annual meetings we meet an enlarged family and community of arthritis chapter volunteers who become our friends and co-volunteers in a cause that makes you and me proud of our efforts in helping our fellow man.

Now, therefore, I, Michelle L. Heckart, by virtue of the authority in me duly vested as the Sovereign Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, do proclaim,

That the month of March be proclaimed Odd Fellows and Rebekahs Arthritis Month in cooperation of fund raising through the Arthritis Foundation in the USA and the Arthritis Society in Canada.

All monies raised should be sent to your Jurisdictional Secretaries to be forwarded to the Arthritis Chapter in your Province or State.

Done in the City of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, this 1st day of January 2023 and of our Order the 204th year.

Yours in F, L & T,

Attest: /s/ Michelle L. Heckart
Sovereign Grand Master

Did you know???

Arlington National Cemetery occupies land once owned by George Washington Parke Custis, the adopted grandson of Martha and George Washington. He built the Arlington House as a memorial to the nation’s first president. In 1857, the property was bequeathed to his daughter Mary Anna Randolph Custis who had married Robert E. Lee 26 years earlier. With the secession of Virginia from the Union, the family evacuated the property. Federal troops incorporated the land into their defensive fortifications around Washington. Part of the property was used as a Freedman’s Village where former slaves received assistance after their liberation.

As the number of casualties climbed during the Civil War, the federal government needed additional cemetery space to inter the dead. To meet this demand, 200 acres of the plantation was set aside as a cemetery. In May 1864, Private William Christman was the first military casualty to be buried in the newly created graveyard. The following month, the War Department designated the space as a national cemetery. After the war, George Washington Custis Lee sued the federal government for return of the land, which he argued had been seized illegally. In 1882, the Supreme Court ruled in his favor and the federal government paid Lee $150,000 for the property, which is equivalent to $3.2 million in 2016. Further along the landmark’s timeline, President Herbert Hoover oversaw the first Memorial Day ceremony on May 30, 1929.

Arlington National Cemetery contains several well-known burial sites and memorials, including the resting places of President John F. Kennedy and his wife Jacqueline as well as his brothers Robert and Edward. Other notable sites include Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, boxing legend Joe Louis and Audie Murphy, the most highly decorated soldier from World War II. Charles L’Enfant, who designed the city of Washington, D.C., several Tuskegee airmen and the seven Space Shuttle Challenger astronauts are also interred here.
Did you know???

If there is one reason, besides paying their respects and the historical significance of the place, that visitors from all over the world visit Arlington National Cemetery is to witness the iconic changing of the guard. Since April 6, 1948, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier has been guarded 24 hours a day, 365 days a year with zero exception. Every hour during winter and every half hour during the summer and daylight hours, one guard relieves another from their post in a ceremony with the precision of a Swiss watch. While on duty, the Tomb Sentinel marches 21 steps across a black mat passing the grave markers of each of the unknowns. He then turns 90-degrees and faces east for exactly 21 seconds.

Afterward, he then turns north for another 21 seconds which is followed by a crisp shoulder arms movement where the guard places his rifle on the shoulder nearest to the spectators to symbolize that he stands between the tomb and any outside threat. The guard then paces 21 steps to the north, turns, and repeats the entire process until he is relieved. When that moment arrives, the new guard makes his way to the plaza alongside a commanding officer who makes a formal announcement to the attendees that the changing of the guard ceremony is to commence. In another elaborate military ballet, the commanding officer inspects the new guard’s weapon and uniform with extreme scrutiny. If all is in order, the relieved guard calmly makes his way back to quarters as his replacement makes his way to the center of the plaza to begin his watch.
